Job-Beschreibung

ABOUT THE COMPANY

A small indie studio focused on creating thoughtful, deeply satisfying factory and automation games that players truly love. The team started with web games, found success on PC, and has since grown into a distributed team delivering highly rated simulation experiences.

The studio values:

- Direct communication and ownership over unnecessary bureaucracy
- Player-first design shaped by close collaboration with the community
- Long-term partnerships with people who want to grow alongside their projects

Description

We're looking for a FULLY REMOTE Technical Team Lead to support and grow our development team (currently 3 developers). This role blends people leadership (coaching, feedback, growth support) with hands-on contribution to current and future projects, depending on your strengths. You'll work closely with the CEO and other leads, and represent the dev team in leadership discussions.

Responsibilities

- Lead the development team as their people manager, providing regular feedback, support, and performance reviews
- Coach and mentor developers, helping them progress with clear growth plans
- Own and continuously improve onboarding, ensuring new hires ramp up smoothly
- Improve day-to-day ways of working: routines, processes, and sustainable team practices
- Contribute hands-on (e.g., coding, tooling, automation) as needed
- Partner with the CEO and other leads on cross-team decisions
- Keep the dev team's needs and context visible in leadership discussions

Requirements

- 2+ years leading developers in a people management role
- 3+ years of professional software development experience in game development
- Clear, reliable communication and strong stakeholder alignment
- Proven experience supporting long-term developer growth
- Availability to collaborate during CET working hours

Nice to have

- Unity and C# experience
- Experience improving team productivity (CI/CD, automation, testing, tooling)
- Experience working in small teams and/or fully remote environments

WHAT THEY OFFER□

- Fully remote, full-time position with flexible scheduling
- Healthy work-life balance culture and paid overtime when it happens
