Job description

At Fluffy Fairy Games you will... ☐ Take ownership of everything you do. Be in an unique environment, a true no-bullshit meritocracy where your skills and efforts really make a difference. Build fast and ship faster. Try hard and learn harder. Grow with every problem encountered. Be paid at industry level. Have access to management all the time. ☐

And you will not... ☐ Get your game killed in an intransparent gate process. Wait a week for a management decision. Compromise on a viable idea because of somebody else's gut feelings. Be surrounded by interns who shoulder much of the actual work without real pay or a chance to land a job. Watch the lead engineer fiddle about for days in search of a perfect solution if a solid hack would have solved the problem. Et cetera. You get the picture. ☐
