☐We Offer:

- Become an essential part of a small team instead of employee #42 and work with us on awesome strategy and simulation games for PC and console
- High level of self-determination and flat hierarchies
- Catering with drinks, fruit and (almost vital) ice cream
- We teach you many new board games at our regular game nights

Your Profil:☐

- Excellent knowledge of C++ and Unreal
- Several years of experience in game development
- At least one successfully published title for PC or console
- Experience with code structure and best practices in large projects
- The ability to quickly find your way around an existing, large code base and work productively

- You can debug and profile efficiently
- Passion for games and game development
- Commitment, personal responsibility and pleasure in teamwork
- Flexibility and resilience

Bonus:

- Experience with console ports
