Job description

Remote | Flexible | Commission-only partnership

FootballTeam is an online football management game with more than 2 million registered users and an active international player community.

We are expanding our affiliate and partnership programme and are looking for well-connected professionals who can introduce us to valuable business partners.

Important: this is not a traditional employment role

This opportunity is designed for people who already have professional contacts and would like to generate additional, long-term income from successful introductions.

There is no fixed salary, no required working hours and no full-time commitment. You can cooperate with us alongside your current job or business activity.

What you will do

Your role is simple:

- Introduce FootballTeam to relevant potential partners from your network
- Help us open conversations with decision-makers
- Make warm introductions where possible
- Support the initial contact when needed

Once the introduction is made, our team handles the further discussions, onboarding, campaign setup, tracking and operational support.

Who we are looking for

We are particularly interested in people with existing contacts among:

- online publishers and media companies
- marketing and advertising agencies
- influencers and content creators
- affiliate networks
- large brands and companies
- e-commerce businesses
- sports organisations and clubs
- companies with large customer bases, communities or promotional channels

Experience in Business Development, B2B Sales, Partnerships, Media, Marketing or Affiliate Marketing is a strong advantage.

Commission model

Partners introduced to FootballTeam can earn 40% commission on purchases generated by the players they acquire.

As the person who introduces the partner, you receive 20% of the commission earned by that partner.

The commission is recurring and linked to the performance of each successfully introduced partner.

There is no upper earnings limit.

What we offer

- Flexible cooperation with no fixed working hours
- 100% remote model
- Long-term recurring commission potential

No campaign management or ongoing partner support required from you
- Full support from our team
- Transparent tracking and reporting
- Formal cooperation agreement

This opportunity is best suited to someone who already has a strong professional network and wants to monetise those relationships through successful introductions.

If that sounds like a good fit, we would be happy to speak with you.
