Hello,

my name is Achim Kinzelmann.

☐ I have a technical college entrance qualification in the field of design and have completed professional training as a photographer. Due to my training as a photographer and my many years of professional experience in the areas of industrial, studio, advertising, furniture and product photography, I have some experience in the field of analog and digital photography with 35mm, medium format and large format cameras as well as photography in the studio with flash systems, as well as knowledge of digital image processing. In addition, in recent years I have acquired knowledge of 3D modeling, texturing and rendering with software such as Cinema4D, 3dsMax, Fusion360, Mudbox and IndigoRenderer.

I would like to work in games, visualization, realtime, etc.
